Frequently Asked Questions

Am I required to bring a laptop computer for my presentation?

No. A computer will be provided at the conference. However should you wish to bring a personal laptop, you may do so.

I have sent my Powerpoint presentation prior to the conference, am I required to bring another copy to the conference?

Yes please. We ask presenters to send their Powerpoint presentation in advance so that it can be pre-loaded into the on-site AV system and checked. However, it is necessary for each presenter to bring a second copy of their powerpoint presentation on USB to the conference as a back up.

I have sent my Powerpoint presentation prior to the conference and I need to make some changes. Can I resubmit?

Yes, if you have updated information you need to include, please update your presentation and bring your full presentation updated on USB to the conference. Please advise Investorium.tv staff of the ammended changes.
